

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF RHODE ISLAND

IN THE MATTER OF A SEARCH
WARRANT DIRECTED TO GOOGLE

Case No.

1:19-SW-330 PAS

Filed Under Seal

ORDER

This matter came on to be heard on September 27, 2019 before this Court on the Government's ex parte Motion pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1651 and 18 U.S.C. § 2705(b) for the Issuance of a Protective Order directing Google not to disclose the existence of a search warrant served upon them for the production of certain records related to email account:

Memo0588@gmail.com

for a period of six months. After due consideration thereon the Court finds there is reason to believe that the disclosure of the issuance of the search warrant will result in individuals fleeing to avoid prosecution, destroying or tampering with evidence, intimidating witnesses or will otherwise seriously jeopardize and ongoing criminal investigation. Accordingly, it is hereby

ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED

Google shall not disclose the existence of the above described search warrant, the application, or this Order of the Court, to the listed customers or to any other person, for a period of six months or until otherwise authorized to do so by the Court.
